1. Die cut the following pieces:
 - Two Sack It to You bases from Candy Corn cardstock.
 - Two Sack It to You handles from Candy Corn cardstock
 - Two Chick feet from Candy Corn cardstock.
 - One Chick beak from Candy Corn cardstock; cut a second beak from a folded piece of Candy Corn cardstock, placing top edge of die just above fold line.
 - One large Egg Stacklet from Potato Chip cardstock
 - Two Chick Wings from Potato Chip cardstock
 - One Chick feather (for head) from Potato Chip cardstock.
 - One Chick belly from Sugar Cube cardstock.
 - Two Chick eyes from Oreo cardstock.
 - One All Wrapped Up bow from pattern paper.
2. Fold firmly along score lines on box pieces.
3. Apply double-sided adhesive to box flaps and bottom of one box piece; assemble box, pressing firmly along tape areas to secure.
4. Adhere box handles, attaching each end to inside of box.
5. Adhere white belly to bottom of large yellow egg.
6. Using foam adhesive, adhere feet.
7. Adhere wings behind left and right edges of chick body.
8. Adhere single layer die-cut beak over folded beak, carefully aligning left and right edges. Adhere to top of white belly.
9. Adhere eyes.
10. Nip away center piece from die-cut bow. Adhere strip to bottom of head feathers; trim ends. With a dot of adhesive in the center of the bow, adhere bow to right side of feathers. One glue has dried, slightly bend forward and up each bow loop and end.
11. Adhere chick to box.
12. Stamp sentiment onto Sugar Cube cardstock trim and mat onto orange dotted paper. Adhere to bamboo stick.
